HEADQUARTERS FORT MONROE
Fort Monroe, Virginia 23651

Fort Monroe Regulation
Number 190-2

1 June 1988

Military Police
JUVENILE CURFEW

1. PURPOSE. This regulation establishes a curfew for juveniles, 17 years of age and below, and prescribes responsibilities of parents, guardians, and law enforcement personnel on this installation.
2. SCOPE. This regulation applies to juveniles residing on or visiting Fort Monroe, and to their parents or guardians.
3. GENERAL. The establishment of a curfew is within the guidelines established in AR 210-10 which charges the installation commander with the responsibility of maintaining law, order, and discipline on this installation.
4. EXPLANATION OF TERMS.
  - a. Juveniles--as used in this regulation, are individuals who have not attained the age of 18 and are not spouses of/or service members.
  - b. Parent (sponsor)--the in-service parent of a child.
  - c. Guardian--a person authorized by law to act as the sponsor of a person in lieu of natural parents.
  - d. Family Member--children who depend on a military sponsor for support.
5. POLICY.

a. Juveniles will not be allowed outside on Fort Monroe unless accompanied by a parent or guardian from 2300 to 0600 on Sunday through Thursday, and from 2400 to 0600 on Friday through Saturday and holidays.

b. The provisions of this regulation will be strictly enforced by the Military Police. Violators will be detained and parent(s) or guardian will be required to come to the Military Police Station personally to pick up the juvenile within one hour after notification.

*This regulation supersedes FM Reg 190-2, 31 August 1981.

1 June 1988

c. Parent(s) or guardian will submit to Commander, Fort Monroe, ATTN: ATZG-PM, a written report indicating actions taken to prevent future violations. This report will be submitted not later than close of business the following workday after the violation.

d. Three or more violations will result in the juvenile's and parents' appearance before the Fort Monroe Juvenile Review Board. Civilian violators will be barred from Fort Monroe.

e. Failure to comply with this regulation could result in loss of quarters privileges.

6. EXCEPTION. An exception may be obtained, with advance approval of the Provost Marshal, when juveniles are attending a special party or occasion, however, they must proceed home by the most direct route. Exceptions should be submitted through the Provost Marshal to the Commander, Fort Monroe.
